

InnoVision Talent Agency Anti-Piracy & Confidentiality Policy

InnoVision Talent Agency enjoys a relationship of trust and confidence with its client studios and production companies because InnoVision Talent Agency strives to safeguard clients' protected information. As a background actor registered with InnoVision Talent Agency, you are not allowed to use, reproduce, disclose, furnish, reveal, communicate, transfer or make accessible to any other person for any purpose any information that you acquire or learn about in connection with your Talent Agency Relationship on a client project that the client has not made available to the public, except as needed in the course of your Talent Agency Relationship on the client's project and for the benefit of the client. The possession of any recording device audio, video, still camera or cellular phone is strictly prohibited on the set.

Protected information of our clients that you may encounter in connection with Talent Agency Relationship on a project includes by way of example, scripts, script pages, story lines, information about cast, crew, or other client studio or production company Contractors or representatives, production notes or logs, shooting schedules or call sheets, or "behind the scenes" information about the project or individuals or entities affiliated with the project.

Additionally, you will acquire or receive information from InnoVision Talent Agency in the course of your Talent Agency Relationship with InnoVision Talent Agency that is treated as private and confidential by InnoVision Talent Agency. Such private and confidential information includes by way of example, personal contact information for InnoVision Talent Agency's casting directors or client contacts (such as assistant directors in charge for background actors) or any other information that you may learn about through your Talent Agency Relationship with InnoVision Talent Agency that InnoVision Talent Agency has not made available to the public. You are prohibited from using, releasing, or otherwise making accessible to any other person for any purpose any information treated as private and confidential by InnoVision Talent Agency except as needed to interact with representatives of InnoVision Talent Agency or the client to obtain or perform your Talent Agency Relationship on client projects through InnoVision Talent Agency.

InnoVision Talent Agency will strictly enforce this Anti-Piracy & Confidentiality Policy. Any violations of this Anti-Piracy & Confidentiality Policy will result in (1) disciplinary action including termination of Talent Agency Relationship and de-registration from InnoVision Talent Agency and (2) full civil and/or criminal prosecution to the extent permitted by law.

Acknowledgement of receipt and compliance

Please complete by signing the bottom portion and return with your registration form.

I, _____, acknowledge that I have reviewed InnoVision Talent Agency's Anti-Piracy & Confidentiality Policy.

Contractor's signature _____ Date signed _____